VOL. IV.

MT. STERLING, KENTUCKY, TUESDAY, SEPT. 5, 1893.

NO. 6

County Superintendent's Report of Schools.

Old Frog Pond District, No. 7.—Reports 100; draws from State $285; number enrolled by teacher 90; highest number present at one time, 66; lowest, 43; present to-day, 63; Miss Clay Willoughby, than whom there is no better school-room worker in the county, alive, systematic, methodical, aggressive, yet faithful and patient; her school is too large, or the house is too small; the trustees are good school-men and are willing to do anything they think will advance the interest of the school; in looking over the ancient history of this district, we find that not far from the present site stood the old school-house where the pupils became famous for their "long standing" in the spelling classes while the words were pronounced by that venerable old teacher, Uncle Ben Graves, hence the subject of spelling was suggested and the class consisting of Misses Emma McCormick, Lullia Williams, Letta and Mittie Wills, Patti Faulkner, Oale Watts, Rebecca Ledford, Sarah Wills, Lullia Wills and Hattie Conner; these bright girls, with their lessons well prepared, were confronted by five wife-a-wake boys, Charley Williams, Emmett Ledford, Turner Powers, Celia Williams, John Neal and Everett Wills, any or all of whom were ready to catch any word the girls might miss and then make it all right with the girl who missed it; only three misspelled words, and the girls caught more than their share. Second, Third readers, eight in one class and nine in the other, all read well and all deserve a favorable mention; the same has said of the geography classes and the classes in arithmetic and primary spelling; it is a pleasure to visit this school, two bright little boys, Mont Faulkner and Clay Jones, make up the primary class.

Science Hill District, No. 33.—Reports 78 children; draws $223.30; highest number present, 74; lowest, 53; present, 44; school flourishing; houses will be finished before cold weather; trustees very proud of their school and seem to take great interest. B. F. Reesor, the popular teacher, has had considerable experience and has first-class qualifications and is teaching a good school; pupils look busy and are busy and quiet; Randall Hawkins, Billy Coburn, Randall Jennett, Claud May, Floyd White, Walter and John Reffett constitute as good a Third reader class as I find; fourteen smart little boys and girls form the Second reader class; all read well; Misses Dora May, Emma Carter, Alta Richardson and Maggie White, four young ladies in their teens, read four young ladies in their teens, read well from Fifth reader. This is the second school these people have had in their new district; the question now is, how did they ever get along without it? Ephraim May, Henry Perkins, J. J. Cornum and Wm. Brown and several others of the parents, in fact, all, deserve credit for the interest they have taken in the school affairs here.

CLEVELAND RETURNS

TO WASHINGTON GREATLY IMPROVED IN HEALTH AND STRENGTH.

Speaker Crisp and Czar Reed—Cleveland's Return.

WASHINGTON, D. C. Sept. 3, 1893. President Cleveland, in accordance with the announcement made when he left Washington, just after the extra session met, is back at his desk in the White House, and his appearance is the best refutation of the many silly sensational stories that have been published within the last week about the dangerous condition he was in. He probably never dreamed, when he was having those two troublesome teeth extracted and their ulcerated roots cut out, two months ago, that it would be by and grow into an operation in which the greater portion of his jawbone would, in the mind of the sensational writer, have to be cut away in order to remove the terrible cancerous growth. In short, it was but another version of the familiar old story of the man who vomited three black crows. President Cleveland is not sick, and he has not been sick since he left Washington. In fact, there were few days while he was away that he did not perform some of his public duties, as the records in the office of his private secretary will show.

The passage of the bill for the unconditional repeal of the purchasing clause of the Sherman silver law by the House focused public attention upon the Senate, where financial speeches are now the order of the day. How long the Senate will talk before voting is a question that will be answered differently by nine out of every ten men in Washington. Two weeks is the shortest time given by anyone, and the longest goes away up in the months. An agreement of some sort will have to be reached before a vote can be taken, and the silver Senators declare they will make no agreement, unless the Vorhees bill, which has been reported as a substitute for the Wilson bill that was passed by the House, is amended in a manner satisfactory to them. The Democratic leaders, however, are confident that an agreement will shortly be reached.

Procrastination may be the thief of time, as the old school adage says, but it isn't getting a chance to steal much of it from the House, Ways and Means committee, which has buckled right down to the tariff question with the determination to report a reform tariff bill at the extra session, or very early in the regular session. While the committee is not disposed to encourage long-drawn-out hearings of every Tom, Dick and Harry who may think themselves tariff experts, it will grant proper hearings to all parties who by reason of their prominence in lines of business that may be affected by a change in the tariff have a reasonable right to be heard. The hearings began Monday, August 28, and end September 30.

Speaker Crisp did a very unusual thing although not unprecedented when he called Representative Richardson of Tennessee, to the Speaker's chair and descended to the floor of the House to reply to the question and called for attack which ex-speaker Reed made upon the new rules of the House. Mr. Reed was surprised and before the Speaker got through disgusted to find himself justly held up to the scorn of the House and the Country for having falsely claimed that the new rules were in the line of the notorious rules with which he gagged the House of the Fifty-first Congress. It is not the first time that Mr. Crisp has proven himself more than a match for the Maine blusterer, and it will not be the last. The difference between the new rules of the House and the notorious Reed rules is precisely that between the Government of the United States and the Government of Russia—the new rules put the authority of shutting off the debate in the hands of the majority of the House, where it alone belongs, and the Reed rules put it into the hands of Reed making him more of an autocrat than would be tolerated in any legislative body of the world.

It is queer how some things come. It is now said that Col. Charles P. Lincoln, who was Deputy Pension Commissioner under Raim, and who has lately gained notoriety by publicly announcing his intention to test in the courts the right of the Commissioner of Pensions to suspend pensioners except in cases where fraud is proven to have been used in securing the pension, got the scheme up for no other purpose than to boom his candidacy for Commander-in-Chief of the G. A. R. at the coming convention of that organization at Indianapolis.

It is regarded as significant that Speaker Crisp should have attached "I am in Washington on that date" to his acceptance of an invitation to deliver a short address at the centennial celebration of the saying of the corner-stone of the Capitol, to be held on the 18th of September. It is taken to mean that Speaker thinks that the extra session may adjourn before that date, and consequently that the Senate will be prompt in acting on the Vorhees bill.

Married, at the Christian church, Thursday, August 31st, at 8 o'clock p. m., Miss Maude M. Clarke to Rev. William M. Forrest, of Baltimore, Md.

The large church was simply but beautifully decorated, and was filled to overflowing long before the hour announced for the ceremony. To the sweet strains of the Mendelssohn Wedding March the ushers moved down the aisles, followed by the two of the bridesmaids, who stepped upon the pulpit platform and gracefully held back the lace draperies which covered the rear doorway. The bridal party passed through, the attending bridesmaids themselves attired as the bride couple came in the front, facing the audience. They were made one in a short but impressive ceremony by Rev. H. D. Clarke, father of the bride. They passed down the aisle and out the front door.

A reception was given to quite a number of their friends. The handsome paragon was looking its best; the parlor was decorated with palms and smilax. The bride and groom stood under a canopy of green to receive congratulations. The dining-room was a study in pink, and empty repaid the care and labor of the deft and willing fingers which had turned it into such a thing of beauty. An elegant luncheon was served at 10 o'clock.

The bride wore a heavy white silk empire gown on train. The four bridesmaids, all cousins of the bride, Misses Ella, Hope, Dickerson and McElhinny, were also in white. The groomsmen were Messrs. Bolton, Clarke, Boardman and Stoffer.

The presents were many and handsome. Mr. J. D. Forrest, from Columbus, Ohio, with his bride, were here. The two aunts and the venerable grandmother of the two young ministers came from Baltimore to be present at the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Forrest go immediately to Hiram College, Ohio, to take a year's course, though Mr. Forrest has had already some pastoral experience, having had charge of two churches. He will find his work greatly supplemented by his talented, energetic, christian wife. Her place here in the Church, Sunday-school and Christian Endeavor Society can not be filled. We know that in the years to come "many will rise up and call her blessed."

Dear Miss Carter: The Board of Lady Managers of the World's Columbian Commission desire to express through you their thanks and appreciation of the beautiful colonial room which Kentucky has presented to the Woman's Building. We know how largely the charming effect produced is owing to your own personal tastes and supervisions, and we anticipate the delight which the many women from all over the country will experience in visiting it.

With sentiments of the highest consideration, we are, yours sincerely, SARAH S. C. ANGELL, CLARA E. TRATHGER, MRS. K. S. G. PAUL.

The following description is from the Art Amateur, the leading art journal of the land, which also publishes a large engraving of the parlor: "The Kentucky Room opens out of the Cincinnati Room, and is one of the most beautiful interiors of the Fair. It was designed by Miss Carter, of Louisville Ky., and is an excellent adaptation of the graceful Colonial style to modern needs. The mirror over the mantel, with its elegant tracery, looks in our illustration like a window because of the clearness with which the reflections of the opposite corner and draped doorway (into the Cincinnati room) have been reproduced. The little fastenings and wreaths and the beads in the lower part of the paneled pillars and pilasters are pale yellow; the general tone of the room is a light cream-color, the panels a dull pale pink, and the fireplace is in gray marble, with an inner bronze moulding. The pots which hold the palms are of blue china. On the opposite to that shown is a harpicoth of elegant design, which, with the portraits of Kentucky worthies and the graceful silver candelabra on the mantel, are genuine Revolutionary or Colonial relics. It was intended that the two fluted niches, one on either side of the fireplace, should be filled by marble statues. The mouldings, capitals, wainscot and all the woodwork of this room are thoroughly well wrought from good designs." The woodwork in the Kentucky parlor is for sale at the close of the Fair, and it was put up and fitted together with that end in view. It is very handsome and will be well worth purchasing. In addition to the woodwork, there will be five chairs, a rug and two jardinières to be sold, which it is hoped will come to Kentucky as souvenirs.

The Senatorial Precinct Convention.

The precinct meetings for the selection of delegates to the Convention to be held at Paris, September 11, for the purpose of selecting a candidate for State Senator, from the counties of Bourbon, Clark and Montgomery, were held on Saturday afternoon. There was little interest manifested in the race in this county, the people here desiring that Clark should settle the matter, besides both Messrs. Gay and Holloway were so acceptable to our people that they did not seem much to care which should be selected, since we would get a good man in either case. The only incident of any note here was a little scrap between two quick tempered gentlemen of the Second ward.

The vote stood in Montgomery as follows:

MT. Sterling—1st Ward, Holloway—10; 2nd Ward, Holloway—10; 3rd Ward, Holloway—10; 4th Ward, Holloway—10. Total—40. Clark—10; Dickerson—10; McElhinny—10; Bolton—10. Total—40. Gay—10; Boardman—10; Stoffer—10. Total—30. Bath, Bourbon and Clark counties also gave a majority to their votes to Holloway, which insures his nomination.

The Cost of an Ex-President's Manuscript.

As an illustration of the money to writers as soon as they acquire a reputation, the September Cosmopolitan contains less than eight thousand words, for which sum of sixteen hundred and sixty-six dollars was paid.

Ex-President Harrison, Mark Twain and William Dean Howells are the three whose work commands such a price. The September number has more than one hundred illustrations, giving the chief point of interest in the Columbian Exposition, and the Fair is treated by more than a dozen authors, including the famous English novelist, Walter Besant; the Midway Plaisance, by Julian Hawthorne; Electricity, by Muriel Halstead; the Liberal Arts Building, by Knapp, the famous gem expert of Tiffany & Company; the Department of Mines, by the chief of that department, etc.

A feature of this number is a story by Mark Twain, entitled "Is He Living or Is He Dead?"

Mass meetings were held at the Court-house Saturday in the counties of Wolfe and Morgan. Legislative district, and selected delegates to meet at Campton, Wolfe county, Monday, the 4th inst., and declared J. W. Steele, of Morgan, the Democratic nominee. Mr. Steele is a number one man, and will make a number one Representative.

THE ADVOCATE.

To enjoy a thing exclusively is commonly to exclude yourself from the true enjoyment of it.—Thoreau.

There is but one way for any of us exert a true influence, and that is by being true and faithful ourselves.—W. G. Elliot.

The truer view of religion, the only one that can stand the tests of deepening culture and experience, regards it not as the relief from life, but as its crown and completion.—Evelyn Underhill.

If for a moment we make way with our petty selfishness, wish no ill to anything, apprehend no ill, cease to be but as the crystal which reflects a ray—what shall we not reflect? what a universe will appear, crystallized and radiant around us.—Thoreau.

Adversity is a medicine, which people are rather fond of recommending indiscriminately as a panacea for their neighbors. Like other medicines, it only agrees with certain constitutions. There are nerves which it braces, and nerves which it utterly shatters.—Justin McCarthy.

Happy the man who observes the heavenly and terrestrial law in proportion; whose every faculty, from the soles of his feet to the crown of his head, obeys the law of its level; who neither stoops nor goes on tiptoe, but lives a balanced life, acceptable to nature and to God.—Aron.

Do not be ashamed of doing the smallest thing that is helpful to others. The opportunities for great usefulness come rarely, but the smaller things are always at hand, and he who does them constantly is of great usefulness; and sometimes when the great opportunity comes it is only the one who has trained himself in the little things that have come before who is master of the situation. Be kind, be true, be faithful to all who have a claim upon you.—H. A. McDougal.

The West India hurricane which swept the Atlantic coast from St. Augustine, Fla., to New York Sunday, Monday and Tuesday of last week, probably cost 200 lives. At Port Royal, S. C., Monday, nearly 100 negroes and six white persons were killed or drowned. Savannah reports fifteen dead and many missing. Charleston was swept by the storm Sunday and great damage done. Over forty wrecks are reported and many vessels are missing. Kerner'sville, N. C., was struck by a cyclone Tuesday morning and 100 houses wrecked. The lower portion of Baltimore was flooded Monday night. Washington was visited by a severe storm at the same time. Tuesday a storm struck Coney Island and Asbury Park, doing great damage.

The experiments of Col. Smolton, of the Russian Army, with falcons as carriers of dispatches have proved successful, and the Russian Army hereafter will employ them in preference to the ordinary "homing" birds. The Colonel has found that the falcons can carry 1640 grams without diminishing its rate of speed, which is considerably greater than that of the pigeon. The falcon, he says, are less likely to fall prey to other birds, as they are better fighters than the pigeons. It is on record, according to the officer, that a falcon once flew from the Canary Islands to the estates of the Duke of Larina in Spain. It seems highly probable that the falcon will become the servant of other European armies.

More than one-half of all the oil of peppermint, spearmint and tansy used in the world is said to be procured in and distilled in Michigan. The center of the industry is St. Joseph county. Peppermint plants to the weight of 15,000 tons when dried are cultivated every year in the State. From these the essential oils are distilled. Early in the spring the roots are planted in furrows from two to three feet apart. A few weeks later the rows meet and cover the entire ground. In September the plants mature. They are then covered with fragrant purple blossoms and the time has arrived for moving. After lying in the sun to dry they are raked into heaps and taken to the distilleries, of which there are about 150 in the State. It is estimated that 350 pounds of dried peppermint plants produce one pound of oil. The yield per acre is 15 pounds of oil. Distilled peppermint brings from $1.25 to $5 per pound in the home market.

Things are different. Child could just jump on a little, unassuming head of American nation, on shore to avoid scurry, and "national" them with military air. But when it came to the American nation, the child was to sing but there was no question of what was in it. It is worth something, after all, to be an AMERICAN CITIZEN. It means a good deal. The same is true of Dr. Fessenden's Kidney and Bladder Cure. It means everything, when it is known to cure all the ailments of the bladder, kidneys, and urinary tract, as well as heart disease, rheumatism, dropsy, etc. It is the most powerful and reliable remedy for all these ailments, and it is so easy to take, that it is a great blessing to all who are in need of it. It is a great blessing to all who are in need of it. It is a great blessing to all who are in need of it.

Future of the Sheep Business.

The future of the sheep business in this country depends somewhat on creating an appetite and a market for mutton; and this must be done by supplying the people with the best that can be produced and teaching the marketmen to handle it so that the fat will not be exposed to the sun and wind and made as rank as whale oil before it is sent to the kitchen. There are many people who declare that they do not like mutton, who cannot tell why, but the probability is that they never saw any good mutton that was properly handled from first to last. It is well enough to seek for a general purpose sheep, and people who relish mutton find no fault with the flesh of any of the so-called mutton breeds properly handled. But to create an appetite with people who are already prejudiced, it would be necessary to make a careful selection and breed and feed entirely for flesh, and take what wool was produced as a by-product. We must have the best that can be produced—something better than they have ever seen—to induce prejudiced people to try a thing which they have discarded. Then when mutton is as generally used here as it is in England, good mutton will get a market and the wool may be again considered.—Ex.

Queer Facts About Money.

There are 119,900,000 old copper pennies somewhere. Nobody knows what has become of them, except that once in a while a single specimen turns up in change. A few years ago 4,500,000 bronze two-cent pieces were set afloat. Three million of these are still outstanding. Three million three-cent nickel pieces are scattered over the United States, but it is very rarely that one seen. Of 800,000 half-cents, which correspond in value to English farthings, not one has been returned to the Government for recoinage, or is held by the Treasury. Congress appropriates from $100,000 to $140,000 yearly for recoining the uncurrent silver coins now in possession of the Treasury. These are mostly half dollars, and are not circulated because there is no demand for them. Not long ago the stock of them amounted to $26,000,000, but it is only about half that now. The money set aside for recoinage is not intended to pay for the cost of the minting, but is required to reimburse the treasury of the United States on account of the loss in weight which the silver pieces have suffered by abrasion. This loss amounts to $30 on every $1,000, and it has to be made good in order to set the treasurer's account straight.—Boston Transcript.

The National House of Representatives was a scene Tuesday of a lively tilt between speaker Crisp and ex-speaker Reed, in which the former got much the better of it. The new rules were under discussion, and the Congressman from Maine took occasion to twist the Democrats for their approval in part of the rules as passed. Reed, first Congress, at the same time holding the body up as a model. The gentleman from Georgia left the chair for the first time this session to reply, and the rasping he gave the blistering ex-sar was most excellently done, eliciting much applause.

United States Treasurer Morgan Tuesday gave ex-Treasurer Nebecker a receipt for $740,817,419.78-3/4, that being the amount of cash, bonds, certificates, etc., now in the Treasury. The counting of this vast sum of money has required the services of three officers and sixty assistants since July 31, last.

Drowning Fish.
Fish in streams and rivers are sometimes drowned, according to the Brooklyn Eagle. Strange as the idea of a drowned fish may be, when a stream is suddenly swollen with water that has fallen upon and drained from surrounding soil that has been exposed for some time previously to the sun's rays, the water is warmed and deprived of its power of holding a proper complement of oxygen, the vivifying gas in consequence escapes, and the fish deprived of the aids necessary for respiration, faint and die, as they would if placed in tepid water. A fish, like a man, requires a perpetual supply of oxygen to his breathing apparatus. A fish gets its oxygen from the water, a man from the atmosphere around him. Reverse the position of the two and the fish becomes what is called drowned in the open air, while man is drowned in water. A fish taken out of water dies from drowning, because the little blood-containing filaments which comprise the gills become stuck together and of course, cannot act so as to oxygenate the blood. Fishermen sometimes drown fish in the water. Immediately a fish is hooked, he begins rushing about in a state of alarm, and thus every minute takes more and more out of himself, until at last he begins to get tired and to flag. The fisherman gently pulls the fish's head to the surface of the stream, between wind and water. The creature grows more and more faint as its head is elevated out of the water, and he at last becomes an easy prey. See fishermen more familiar with the phenomenon referred to above. Many species of marine fish have swim bladders or "sound" as they are called by fishermen. When the fish are weakened by their struggles on a hook they are not able to control the air taken in, the consequence being that their stomachs are turned inside out and inflated with air; the "poke-blows" fish rises to the surface, where even if it escapes the hook, it remains buoyed up, seldom having strength enough to recover and return to its destined stomach to its normal position. All of the cod family are somewhat noted for this, but the eel, Brosmius broune, is most remarkable. When a eel is taken in 50 or 60 fathoms it almost invariably comes up "poke-blown," while its eyes are generally almost bursting with air bubbles, which also fill the entire membrane of skin. A long and interesting article could be written on this subject.

30,000 Idle.
State Labor Commissioner Brentlinger estimates from returns received from leading points in the State, that there are 35,000 unemployed men in Colorado, as the direct result of the recent closing of the mines. Not all are miners, of course. He estimates that the army of unemployed will be augmented by 15,000 men within 30 or 60 days. Many of these men are now employed by farmers or fruit raisers. The work of discharging the farm laborers has already begun.

Prof. Felix L. Oswald predicts this country will have 300,000 inhabitants in 1893.

The big Neldinghaus tin-factories at St. Louis resumed operations Tuesday, over 2,000 men going back to work.

In Berlin there are said to be 16 nobles, seven retired army officers and three clergymen employed as cab drivers.

In 1892 New York City paid for its school bill $4,000,000; for its amusement bill, $7,000,000; and for its drink bill, $60,000,000.

The sun never sets on the soil of the United States. When it is 6 p. m. at Atto Island, Alaska, it is 9:36 a. m. at the day following at Eastport, Me.

The health department of Berlin reports that the juice of a lemon and orange, or of the acid it contains, is fatal to the bacilli of cholera. Those who use it freely are not subject to attacks of the disease.

The notes of the Banque de France are made of white water-lilies paper, printed in blue and black, with various mythological and allegorical pictures. They run in denominations from 30 francs to 1,000 francs.

A number of Colorado Republicans are quoted as advocating a new political party which shall have as its platform the free and unlimited control of silver. The party proposes to favor free trade as a retaliatory measure on Eastern Republicans for their attitude toward silver.

Birds and bird-keepers, the society of man—that is, they seek the locality where fields and gardens abound, for they find better when human industry exists than the soil the products upon which they subsist. A Maine bee culturist says it is the rarest thing in the world to find bees away from the settlements, or from openings where flowers grow. It is in the small forest patches they are oftenest found, and generally not far from the edge of the woods. It is the same with birds. There are no song birds in the northern Maine wilderness, and scarcely any thing can be called bird life. Birds cluster around towns and villages.

The strawberry planting should not be neglected in the fall. It is during the season between strawberry-picking and winter that the crop for next season is determined. Some growers concentrate all their efforts on the strawberry in the spring, thinking to make a crop by cultivation and manure. As our first meeting in spring flowering are produced in the fall. Manuring in spring may increase the crop by swelling the fruit to larger size, but it is then too late to increase its number.

Do not allow the farm-buildings to lack paint. The cost is covered by the saving in lumber which results, and the improved appearance is worth something.

The good gardener makes successive plantings so as to have a supply of vegetables all through the season.

The increasing Use Of Eyeglasses.

Any one who goes among the summer hotels or resorts where numbers of people are congregated is constantly struck with the increasing use of spectacles and eyeglasses among young people. It would seem that almost one-half of our boys and girls from five to fifteen had need of artificial aid to vision. The smallest young man now talks about astigmatism and myopia in quite a learned way and the flash of his glasses as he frolics about in the sunshine or bends over his oatmeal is quite blinding. The young girl looks innocently out upon the world through gold-bowed spectacles, and the young man carefully adjusts his eyeglasses before venturing upon tennis or cricket. The increasing use of glasses among American people is very noticeable.

Whether it is the effect of our rapid development and more luxurious civilization, or merely mere attention is now paid to correcting defects than formerly, is a question for specialists. Meanwhile it would appear that the apparent need of the race for better eyesight would, according to the doctrine of evolution, bring about a change in future generations, who should either be endowed with telescopic eyes or with some sort of new optical arrangement of increased power. That our eyesight is failing is an evident and melancholy fact.—Boston Courier.

THE WORLD'S FAIR

As a Field For Foreign Missionary Work.

In the Commercial Gazette of Aug. 20, we find the following account of the conversion of two Japanese gentlemen to the Christian faith. Dr. Black, pastor of the Central Christian church, Chicago, is well-known and greatly beloved by many of the people in this section. The Commercial Gazette says:

"Two sons of Japan, who were sent to Chicago to represent Japanese Government at the World's Columbian Exposition, have been converted to Christianity. They are I. Yoshikawa, of Tokio, and S. Minano, of Osaka. Rev. W. F. Black, pastor of the Central Church of Christ, Thirty-seventh street and Indiana avenue, converted them. Mr. Yoshikawa is one of the interpreters for his Government at the Fair, while Mr. Minano was introduced to Mr. Yoshikawa. They have been baptized in the faith of the Christian Church, and upon their return to Japan they intend to establish missions in all the large cities of their native land. Dr. Black thinks their conversion will have a wonderful influence upon Christianizing the land of the Mikado.

On one of his visits to the World's Fair, about two months ago, Dr. Black was introduced to Mr. Yoshikawa. He found him a remarkably intelligent person, with a thorough knowledge of the English language. Mr. Yoshikawa was educated in London, and his family is one of the best in the Japanese Empire. For several years he taught the English language in his native city of Tokio. He was at one time military interpreter for his Government. When the Mikado's representatives were looking for the best men in that country to be sent to the World's Fair, Mr. Yoshikawa was one of the first to be selected. He had been in the United States on a pleasure tour some years ago, and had visited all the large cities from the Atlantic to the Pacific. Being a close observer of things, he gained a wide knowledge of the American people, and had put into practice some of the ideas he had learned here.

Mr. Minano, of Osaka, is one of the most prominent men of that city. He speaks English fairly well, and is an excellent French scholar. In speaking of the conversion of Mr. Yoshikawa and Mr. Minano, Rev. Dr. Black said:

"I was out at the Fair one day with a friend of mine, who introduced me to Mr. Yoshikawa. I found him such a bright conversationalist that I sat down and talked with him for more than an hour. At our first meeting I never dreamed that he would become a convert to Christianity. In fact, we did not have much to say upon the subject of religion. When I left, I gave him my card and invited him to come to my house when he had an opportunity. A few days after that I went to the door one evening after dinner in response to a ring, and agreeably surprised to be confronted by my Japanese friend. We spent a pleasant evening together, and upon his departure I invited him to come to my church the next Sunday night.

"He came, and seemed to be greatly interested in the services. Wednesday evening prayer-meeting found him at the church again, and he has been coming regularly ever since. On his third or fourth visit he brought his sister with him. She is an accomplished young woman, and like all the females of Japan who belong to the higher class, she is a very modest person.

"I visit the Fair two or three times each week, and whenever I went there after this I always called at the Japanese Building to see Mr. Yoshikawa. A warm friendship sprang up between us, and after I got to know him well I asked him if he would like me to embrace the Christian religion. He said he had been thinking of it since his first visit to my church. It was not a very hard task to test him in the true of the gospel, and he professed his faith two weeks ago Saturday. The next night he came to the church and was baptized.

"The church was crowded that evening—more than a thousand persons being present. Mr. Yoshikawa sat among the worshippers. When I asked if anyone present wished to accept the Saviour, he came forward, and I immersed him. He made a confession, and said that he wanted to live the Christian life. A few days after that Mr. Yoshikawa came to my and told me that he had a friend who expressed a wish to join the church. This friend was Mr. Minano. He was baptized last Sunday evening, and we expect others of the Japanese Commissioners to embrace the Christian faith before the close of the World's Fair. I have been talking with the Turkish Commissioners, and it is probable that some of them will be converted to Christianity in the near future.

"Mr. Yoshikawa has a wife in Japan. He has told me that as soon as he goes back home he will have her converted, and together they will establish missions throughout the Japanese Empire. I have convinced both of these converts that the Christian religion is the true one, and they are anxious to establish in Japan the Christian civilization. Two weeks from to-morrow night Mr. Yoshikawa and Mr. Minano will give a free treat at the church. On that occasion they will publicly declare their faith in Christ. The influence that these converts will have among their people in Japan can not be calculated."

The way she looks troubles the woman who is delicate, run-down, or overworked. She's hollow-cheeked, dull-eyed, thin, and pale, and it worries her. Now, the way to look well is to be well. And the way to be well, if you're any such woman, is to faithfully use Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. That is the only medicine that's guaranteed to build up women's strength and to cure woman's ailments. In every "female complaint," irregularity, or weakness, and in every exhausted condition of the female system—if it ever fails to benefit or cure, you have your money back.

We are authorized to announce C. G. Glover as a candidate for Councilman from the Fourth Ward of the city of Mt. Sterling, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

We are authorized to announce J. M. Conroy as a candidate for Councilman from the Fourth Ward of the city, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

The colored M. E. Church is undergoing repairs, and when completed will be one of the prettiest church buildings in the city.

The Mt. Sterling "Gas It," called for short "Gazette," a Republican sheet whose sole aim in life seems to be to echo the worst saying of the worst element of its party press, and to advocate the extremist and most villainously vile measures, the most partisan of its party leaders may suggest, has been filling its columns for some time past with charges that the present financial depression is due to a lack of faith on the part of the people, in the present Administration. Now "Gas-It" must know the utter falsity of its assertions, if it knows anything. But its distinguishing characteristic: bitter and unrelenting hatred of a Democrat will not allow it to keep anywhere near the line of truth if misstatement of fact will accomplish its purpose.

The "Gazette" knows, it knows anything at all, that the three most notable achievements of the Republican party in late years have been:

A pension list of $150,000,000 a year.

The McKinley Tariff inquiry.

The Sherman Silver law.

This vicious legislation, together with much more of even a deeper and more devilishly vile character which was attempted by its party, and to which "Gas-It," notwithstanding its poorly attempted denial, gave its sanction, and denominated "wise and patriotic" measures, was seen with alarm by the American people. The rocks upon which we were being driven by the viciously iniquitous measures of the Republican party, became apparent to the entire nation; and from Canada to the Gulf, and from the Atlantic to the Pacific, there swept over the land a determination to drive this party from power. The people saw that extravagance, cowardice and ignorance had so involved the finances of this great country that it would be a miracle, almost, if the direct consequences did not result. They indignantly hurled this infamous party from power, and by a vote unprecedented in American politics, they said this party should no longer hold the reins of government. It was one thing to drive a party from power, it was another to avert the consequences of this party's actions whilst in power. We are now reaping the whirlwind of destruction, financial distress for which the Republican party sowed the seeds in its vicious legislation of years past. The people unfortunately saw too late, to avert them, the consequences of this sort of law-making. They kicked the miserable set out of doors and put in servants who will do what they can to remedy the consequences of laws already enacted. "Gas-It" wailed the "wholly untrue" till the rotten old rag fell to pieces in its hands. Now it has the supreme audacity to attempt to dry out the present financial distress is due to the lack of faith on the part of the people in the Democratic party, when he knows we are rapidly drifting to the dogs the very Republican legislation has prepared for us.

The $150,000,000 Pension List.

The McKinley Tariff Steel.

The Sherman Silver Law.

Don't dignify them, "Gas-It," as you did their "wise and patriotic" measure "they are yours." All the long list of evils they have brought on the country with them, lie at your door also. Come, "Gas-It," no dodging.

Old "Gas It" (alias Gazette) wants Democratic candidates to give to it their announcements in order to take the money it thus procures to fight Democratic nominees.

A very large congregation was out here Rev. A. J. Arriek, of the First Presbyterian Church, on Sunday night. Prof. E. S. Fogg was with the choir and assisted in the music, which was said by those who heard it to be very fine.

HOW ABOUT

HARD TIMES?

Are you a supporter of the present financial system, which congests the currency of the country periodically at the money centers and keeps the masses at the mercy of chance or do you favor a broad and liberal system?

LIBERAL SYSTEM

If you feel this way, you should not be without that great champion of the peoples rights.

THE ATLANTA WEEKLY CONSTITUTION

Published at Atlanta, Ga., and having a circulation of MORE THAN 150,000. Chiefly among the farmers of America, and going into more homes than any weekly newspaper published on the face of the earth.

It is the Biggest and Best Weekly Newspaper published in America, covering the news of the world, having correspondents in every city in America and the capitals of Europe, and reporting in full the details of the debates in Congress on all questions of public interest.

THE CONSTITUTION

Is among the few great newspapers publishing daily editions on the side of the people as against European domination of our money system, and it heartily advocates:

FIRST, THE FREE COINAGE OF SILVER. Believing that the establishment of a single gold standard will wreck the prosperity of the great masses of the people, though it may profit the few who have already grown rich by Federal protection and Federal subsidy.

SECOND, TARIFF REFORM. Believing that by throwing our ports open to markets of the world and levying only enough import duties to pay the actual expenses of the government, the people will be better served than by making them pay double prices for protection's sake.

THIRD, AN INCOME TAX. Believing that those who have much money should bear the burdens of government in the same proportion to those who have little.

THE CONSTITUTION heartily advocates an Expansion of the Currency. Until there is enough of it in circulation to do the legitimate business of the country. If you wish to help in shaping the legislation of the government to these ends, GIVE THE CONSTITUTION YOUR ASSISANCE. Send it a helping hand in the fight, and remember that by so doing you will help yourself, help your neighbor, and help your country.

AS A NEWSPAPER: The Washington Observer says: "It has no equal in America. Its news reports cover the world, and its correspondence and agency are to be found in almost every town in the Southern and Western States."

AS A MAGAZINE: It prints more accurate and as interestingly found in the great magazines of the country than can be gotten from even the best of them.

AS AN EDUCATOR: The Constitution is a liberal education in every issue. It brings cheer and comfort to the distressed, every week is eagerly sought by the children, contains valuable information for the mother, and is an encyclopedia of instruction for every member of the household.

ITS SPECIAL FEATURES

MT. STERLING, KY.

Born, September 1st, to Thomas Batts and wife, a daughter.

James T. Highland will be married to-morrow, Wednesday 6th, to Miss Mary E. Clay of this county.

George Hockaday, of Gainesville, Georgia, has rented the residence of I. M. Phipps, on North Mayfield street. Mr. Hockaday expects to engage in some kind of mercantile business.

We are in receipt of a complimentary ticket to the Winchester Fair, September 12-14. Thanks, gentlemen, we will be among the many from this county who will attend your excellent meeting.

"Times are too hard, stop my paper." The gentleman who penned these words is a miller. His business depends on consumers, those who are able to pay. Stop my paper! Let this be a command and everybody be compelled to obey, what would become of the world? Information is not imparted, progress is at a standstill, and mills are shut down.

"When will these hard times end?" said the laboring man to a gentleman hurrying in business. As soon as people of the towns go to work and save their earnings and the farmers leave to their farming in the fields rather than on street corners, speak encouragingly of your neighbors, quit talking about hard times, have faith in the Administration, and all will be well.

Henry Watson is a candidate for election to the office of Councilman of the Second ward, and of course his candidacy is subject to the will of the Democracy. Mr. Watson wishes his claims to be passed on, and to be judged for the future by what he has done for the city in the past. He believes merit should win, and asks the support of his party upon his allegiance to its principles and his real worth as an official.

The C. H. and D. Railroad have issued a handsome panoramic view, five feet long, of Chicago and the World's Fair, showing relative heights of the principal buildings, etc. Also a handsome photographic album of the World's Fair buildings, either of which will be sent to any address postpaid on receipt of 10 cents in stamps. Address D. G. Edwards, General Passenger Agent World's Fair Route, 200 W. Fourth street, Cincinnati, O.

We, this week, announce Jo M. Conroy and Charles G. Glover as candidates for Councilmen from the Fourth Ward of Mt. Sterling. These two gentlemen are well fitted for the position. They are young men who are aggressive in their ideas—active and energetic, who have no axes to grind, belong to no clique or ring, and only agreed to become candidates at the urgent request of their many friends who believe, as we do, that they will make most acceptable city officials. We most cordially commend these two young business men to the Democratic voters of the Fourth Ward.

Mr. Herbert B. Kinsolving asks the Democratic community to give him the nomination for County Judge. He has been slow to publicly declare his candidacy, but other candidates having announced, he felt it was time to himself and his friends to say by should let his plans and wishes be known. Mr. Kinsolving was born and raised in Ohio county, Ky., where before he was twenty-two years old he was elected County Attorney. For four years he filled this responsible position, how creditably it may be judged, when his people at the end of his term nominated him for Representative in the General Assembly, and elected him by a routing majority, he running over two hundred votes ahead of the State ticket. All this speaks volumes for him. He came to Montgomery to make his home among our people, and his life is known to all since he lived among us. His work for the Democracy in the last Presidential campaign, in this and other counties, is well known to our people. He respectfully asks your votes.

A PIECE OF GALL.

A prominent candidate for the Democratic nomination to one of the foremost county offices, said to us a day or two since: "The editors of this Republican sheet, the Gazette, have more gall than I have ever seen enclosed in the same compass. One of them had the supreme impudence to ask me to announce my candidacy for a Democratic nomination in his paper—this, too, when every page of his paper teems with abuse of Democrats and Democratic measures. He must take me for a fool when he expects me to give him my money, to the better support him in a fight against me if I shall receive the Democratic nomination." This Democrat takes the correct view of the matter. We have said before—we repeat it—there are two Democratic papers in this county, one or the other of which reaches every Democratic voter within its limits. Announce in them. But you have no right, when you are expecting those same Democratic papers to support you, after you shall have received the nomination, against the attacks of the Republican journal, to furnish it means with which to carry on a campaign against yourself. Business is business, and politics is politics. When it comes to politics keep your munitions of war as far as possible out of the hands of the enemy.

Mr. J. W. Chenault asks us to say to the people of Montgomery, that he desires to serve them as Jailor. He has been a Democrat, always. Comes of a family of Democrats, and has been an active worker in the party since his majority. He served this county as Sheriff—has lived among us all his life and his entire record is known to all. When financial distress overtook him, he met it like a man, and came out of the trouble clean-handed. He thinks his services to the party in days gone by; entitles him to ask that it shall entrust him with the nomination for Jailor; and he promises, if elected, to make the county an efficient office.

Mr. James Best asks of the Democracy an endorsement in the shape of a renomination for Jailor of the county. He was called upon to take the position of Jailor to fill out the unexpired term of one of the most popular officers the county ever had, and one who was killed whilst in the discharge of his duty. The fact that he made a wonderfully acceptable official under such circumstances speaks more for him than any words we could write. There are few men indeed who could have so acceptably filled the position, to which he was called; under all the circumstances. The Democrats will make no mistake in giving James Best a renomination for the office.

Are You Nervous?

Are you tired out, do you have that tired feeling or sick headache? You can be relieved of all these symptoms by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, which gives nerve, mental and bodily strength and thoroughly purifies the blood. It also creates a good appetite, cures indigestion, heartburn and dyspepsia.

Hood's Pills are easy to take, easy in action and sure in effect. 25 cents a box.

Mr. J. Will Churchman, one of our best young business men, and one who is closely identified with Mt. Sterling and all her interests, has announced himself as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Councilman from the First ward. If there can be found a better man than Will Clay for Councilman, we would like to know who he is. We are always glad when we can support such a man as Mr. Clay for public office.

J. C. Back, attorney at Jackson, was nominated Democratic candidate for the Legislature from the counties of Lee, Breathitt and Magoffin, on Wednesday, by acclamation. Mr. Back is a staunch Democrat and has the confidence of his party. He will doubtless have a Republican opposition, but Mr. Back will have a complete walkover.

To the Democrats of Montgomery County.

My duties as deputy clerk in the County Clerk's office, prevent me from making an active canvass at present. I hope to see each of you personally before the election, and I ask of you to consider my claims before pledging to other candidates in the County Clerk's race. I am running this race alone, and am not, nor will I be connected with either of the gentlemen who are candidates for County Clerk, reports to the contrary, notwithstanding.

Your Obedient Servant,
W. B. O'CONNELL.

RELIGIOUS.

Elder T. G. Lester, of Virginia, and Elder Gold, of North Carolina, will preach at Southern Presbyterian church Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock and in the evening at 7 o'clock. This public is cordially invited to attend.

Licking Association of Particular Baptists will meet at Mayslick, Mason county, Friday 8th and continue three days. R. M. Hubbard and wife, J. W. Battif and wife will attend as delegates from here.

If elected Mayor I shall most certainly be elected by the people for the people, without prejudice or promise, and will all the office to the very best of my ability. I refer to my record while a committee from the Commercial Club on streets before the Council, as to the interest I take in what I think to be for the city's good. I was the first to lay my claims before the people and expect to be elected. Rich or poor man, if I promise you this, I will be Mayor to all alike, and this is all I pledge I make.

Yours,
W. R. KUNNELLEY.

The Chairmen of the Democratic Committees of the counties of Breathitt, Wolfe, Morgan, Owsley and Magoffin, the 34th Senatorial district, met at Jackson, Breathitt county, on last Wednesday, and decided to hold precinct meetings on September 22d, county meetings at the Court-houses in each county on the 23d inst., and a district convention at Jackson, Breathitt county, September 26th. Each candidate to be given his strength. The candidates are Col. John P. Saltzer, of Morgan; Hiram Owsley, of Owsley, and S. S. Combs, of Wolfe.

The good success Dr. Stockdale has had with his numerous patients in this vicinity is the result of his thorough education and knowledge of the disease he makes his specialty. He can cure all cases nor does he claim to. His careful mode of examination and his familiarity with the slightest changes in the different organs enable him to tell at once whether or not a cure can be effected. His ideas are new and his methods the latest. He solicits all who are suffering from chronic or nervous troubles to see him and learn his methods. See him at National Hotel, Wednesday, September 13.

S. P. Hime, one of the most prominent farmers of this county, on last Saturday made an assignment to Dr. J. A. Shirley for the benefit of his creditors. We have been unable to learn the condition of his affairs and hence can not approximate the amount of his indebtedness or resources. At the same time his son, R. J. Hunt, and the firm of L. & J. Hunt assigned to John Morris. They are of the very best men of Montgomery county, and no man will read this item who will not have the deepest sympathy for them.

But little has been said recently of the gas and oil prospects. In the meantime Adam Baum continues to ply the drill. He is not talking just now, but if we should make a guess we would say the well is about 600 feet deep. Experts claim that gas and oil both abound here, and a well sunk to the depth of 1,200 to 1,500 feet would reach it. Mr. Baum will go that depth should he not find it sooner.

A FAIR TRIAL of Hood's Sarsaparilla guarantees a complete cure. It is an honest medicine, honestly advertised and it honestly CURES.

A letter from Judge I. M. Vannard at Hot Springs, says he is very much improved and is encouraged to believe that he will be very greatly benefited. He has improved so as to be able to dress himself.

Mr. J. Green Trimble the Temporary Receiver of the New Farmers Bank, will probably present his report to the court. Every one feels satisfied that his report when it comes, will be a fine and impartial one and those who have interests in the bank will see a business man's unprejudiced view of its status.

We announce Mr. C. H. Bryan as candidate for reelection for Councilman of the First ward of the city. Mr. Bryan is made of the sort of stuff that insures a good officer for the city. His record has been so as to win for him the practically unanimous support of all voters in his ward. He has so acceptably served the city in the past that the people in his ward could not think of not keeping him in the position so long as they can secure his counsel to stay there.

Mr. James W. Lockridge is a candidate for Jailor of Montgomery county, and so announces himself through our columns this week. He is a young man of most exemplary habits, a gentleman always and one who will bring both faithfulness and intelligence to the discharge of the duties of the office entrusted with it. He has a host of friends and is particularly blessed in having those who are his nearest neighbors and know him best, speak most highly of him. The young element of the party will find one of themselves in Mr. Lockridge, and when he comes to the polls he will roll up a big vote among this class of voters.

Dr. T. Thatcher Graves, the alleged murderer of Mrs. Barnaby, committed suicide in the jail at Denver Saturday night, presumably with poison, his body being found Sunday morning. He left several letters declaring his innocence and saying he preferred to leave the money it would cost to push his defense to his wife and aged mother, rather than use it in a fight he felt was useless under the circumstances.

Henry Botts, colored, entered the house of Mrs. Myhrner, near the city, yesterday morning and secured a gold watch belonging to her son, Earnest, and $20 in gold, the property of her daughter, Miss Nannie. Deputy Marshal Taul arrested Botts and secured the watch, but the negro had spent the money for clothes, etc. The grand jury is in session, and it will probably give the Circuit Court an opportunity to pass on his case at an early day.

Letters received here from Washington state that Mr. Lisle, our Congressman, has an engagement for to-day with President Cleveland in regard to the appointment of Hon. C. R. Brooks to an Oklahoma Judgeship. If the wishes of this community could govern the case, Cabs would have a commission in his pocket before night. There is no man more deserving, nor one whose appointment would give more general satisfaction in this part of the State.

From the same source we learn that the Mt. Sterling Postoffice case will probably be settled this week also.

LAND STOCK AND CROP.

Versailles, Oct. 1: Monday was a quiet day at Court day of the year. Attendance small, and no stock to be sold. A bunch of heifer calves brought $10.75.—Sun

Cynthiana Court: Yearling steers from $12 to $18 per head; calves $10 to $12; milk cows $20 to $30; several bunches of stock ewes, common from $1 to $2.40 a head.—Democrat.

Richmond Court: 150 cattle on the market, all ranging from medium to common in quality. Best offering weight 1,000 pounds, brought 3 cents, but the bulk went off at lower prices. Fat heifers 24 cents. Several hundred mountain ewes sold at prices ranging from $2 to $2.50. Money scarce and market dull.—Climax.

Last week W. J. Debaun threshed 50 bushels of clover seed from 25 acres. John A. Vansandall in a half day with a brand new huller.—Tom Alexander bought of W. C. Cravens, of Woodford county, 20 acres of corn, at $2.50 a barrel in the shock.—Harrodsburg Sayings.

This time last spring a large number of lambs had been engaged at six cents to be delivered this spring, but we have heard of very few engagements so far this fall for next spring. We understand that George Wood engaged from G. P. Bright the lambs from 140 ewes to go in June and July, at $4 per head. This is in the neighborhood of five cents per pound.

Reed & Markberry sold their crop of about 2,000 bushels of wheat to Geo. Cogar for 50 cents. Mr. Cogar to pay the bill amounting to $1,000 per load.—Danville Advocate.

The annual grain fair commenced its session in Vienna, Austria, on Monday. The following is the yield from the principal wheat producing countries and its probable prices for the cereal in the leading markets.

The North American wheat yield was placed at 382,000,000 bushels, rye at 24,300,000 bushels, and corn at 1,809,000,000 bushels. The wheat yield in India is placed at 2,235,000 tons, against 5,400,000 tons last year.

HORSE AND TRACK.

Directing men the free for all trot at Fleetwood Park, taking the 3d, 4th and 5th heats in 2:10, 2:14 and 2:09. Harrietta won the $10,000 Charles Oak Stakes; best time 2:12.

The pacer Will Kerr, 3:08, was hobbled, a Crit Davis bit and a full assortment of boots.

At Terre Haute late in September Nancy Hanks will try to beat the 2:04 she made there last year.

Kentucky Union, 2:13, is rounding to again and will be among the fast ones this fall.

Henry Kelly says he does not think Flying Jib will start again this year.

At the close of last week, Chimes had thirteen in the list and eight in the 2:30 list, a wonderful showing for a horse but nine years of age.

Manager, 2:07, Hal Pointe, 2:04, Blue Sign, 2:08, and Roy Wilcox, 2:06, will contest the free for all walk at the Terre Haute meeting.

It is a coincidence that the two best two-year-olds of the season are by the seven-year-old stallion Allerton, 2:09; and Axtell, 2:12, both stallions bred and developed by C. W. Williams.

No more conclusive evidence need be wanted that the pace is faster than the trot than the fact that nearly every animal that has been developed at both gaits has much the lower record at the pace.

Four good rules for watering horses are: Use only pure water. Water before feeding. Water frequently (from three to five times daily). Never give a large quantity at one time, especially if the animal is very warm or about to undergo severe exertion.

James Moore, Deputy Marshal of Morehead, was attempting to make an arrest of a drunken man yesterday, when Grant Glickerson ran up and stabbed the Marshal once in the back and once in the breast. Moore will probably die. Glickerson was arrested and by order of the County Judge brought to the Montgomery jail by Sheriff M. F. Fouch, to keep him from being lynched by the indignant citizens.

Crops of all kinds are suffering for rain. A great many have begun cutting tobacco—it is drying up on the stalk. The crop will fall short nearly one-half, unless rain comes in a few days, which will help late tobacco to some extent.

Col. S. C. C. Jr., of Louisville, spent last week looking over the tobacco prospect of the growing crop, and to ascertain to what per cent the drought has damaged it. Mr. C. C. represents one of the largest and best manufacturers in the United States, the Wilson & McCallay Tobacco Company, of Middletown, Ohio, which handles over ten million pounds of burley. Mr. C. C. says more high priced tobacco than any other buyer in the Louisville market. He has looked over Clark, Fayette, Bourbon, Bath, Montgomery, Woodford and Scott counties, and says that the crop looks better in Montgomery county than any he has seen, and gives Grassy Lick the blue ribbon for the best looking tobacco in Montgomery.

The Schools.

Several of the schools opened yesterday. Miss Rannie Burroughs (public school), with 52 pupils; Miss Lewin's, with 25; Prof. Goodwin's, with 12; Mrs. Harris', 26; Miss Mary Duty, with 15; the K. T. S., "with a satisfactory number, considering the depression over the country." The warm weather gave many a boy and girl an excuse for not yet entering upon the work of the school-room. All the schools seem to have a prospect of having a full attendance. The city school will open next Monday morning.

From late advices it seems the reported breach between Senator Blackburn and Congressman Breckinridge does not exist. In speaking of it, the Courier-Journal says: The report that Senator Blackburn was inclined to take up Mrs. Luke Breckinridge's alleged grievance against Congressman W. C. P. Breckinridge is incorrect. The senior Kentucky Senator will be Mr. Breckinridge's counsel in the suit brought by Miss Pollard.
